What is CBD Oil?

CBD, short for cannabidiol, is a natural compound found in the cannabis plant. Unlike its cousin, THC, CBD is non-psychoactive, meaning it does not produce the „high“ typically associated with cannabis use. CBD interacts with the body's endocannabinoid system, a complex network of receptors that helps regulate various bodily functions such as mood, sleep, appetite, and pain.

CBD oil is made by extracting CBD from the cannabis plant and diluting it with a carrier oil such as coconut or hemp seed oil. This process allows for easy consumption and absorption of CBD into the bloodstream.
